Praise for Charlie Donlea

"In Donlea's skillful hands, this story of obsession, murder, and the search for truth is both a compassionate character study and a compelling thriller." — Kirkus Reviews on Some Choose Darkness

"Engrossing...Donlea smoothly mixes red herrings and genuine clues...Readers who relish a good puzzle will be rewarded" — Publisher's Weekly on Some Choose Darkness

"You can't blame Charlie Donlea if the ending of his novel makes your jaw drop. The title alone Don't Believe It is fair warning that his characters are no more to be trusted than are our initial impressions of them." —The New York Times Book Review on Don't Believe It

"Donlea's sophomore effort is solid. He effectively tells the story using shifts in time, and...keeps the reader guessing and second-guessing until the end, thanks to an expertly crafted abundance of potential suspects." — Library Journal on The Girl Who Was Taken

Internationally bestselling author Charlie Donlea injects his emblematic jaw-dropping twists, sophisticated character development and electric prose into THE SUICIDE HOUSE, a haunting novel featuring forensic reconstructionist Rory Moore, a restorer of antique dolls who exhibits mannerisms that pin her on the autism spectrum, but possesses an uncanny ability to see what others don't. Along with her partner, psychologist Lane Phillips, she's called upon to investigate the Westmount Prep Slaughters – and the bizarre string of survivor suicides that follow...

ABOUT THE BOOK

Inside the walls of Indiana’s elite Westmont Preparatory High School, expectations run high and rules are strictly enforced. But in the woods beyond the manicured campus and playing fields sits an abandoned boarding house that is infamous among Westmont’s students as a late-night hangout. Here, only one rule applies: don’t let your candle go out—unless you want the Man in the Mirror to find you...

One year ago, two students were killed there in a grisly slaughter. The case has since become the focus of a hit podcast, The Suicide House. Though a teacher was convicted of the murders, mysteries and questions remain. The most urgent among them is why so many students who survived that horrific night have returned to the boarding house—to kill themselves.

Rory, an expert in reconstructing cold cases, is working on The Suicide House podcast with Lane, recreating the night of the killings in order to find answers that have eluded the school, the town, and the police. But the more they learn about the troubled students, the chillingly stoic culprit, and a dangerous game gone tragically wrong, the more convinced they become that something sinister is still happening. Inside Westmont Prep, the game hasn’t ended. It thrives on secrecy and silence. And for its players, there may be no way to win—or to survive...

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Charlie Donlea is the critically acclaimed, USA Today and Indiebound bestselling author of Summit Lake, The Girl Who Was Taken, Don’t Believe It, Some Choose Darkness and The Suicide House. Praised for his “soaring pace, teasing plot twists” (Bookpage) and talent for writing an ending that “makes your jaw drop” (The New York Times Book Review), Donlea has been called a “bold new writer...on his way to becoming a major figure in the world of suspense” (Publishers Weekly). He was born and raised in Chicago, where he continues to live with his wife and two children. An avid golfer and baseball fan, he spends a part of each year fishing with his father in the far reaches of Canada, where the roads end and lakes are accessible only by floatplane.
